ADMINISTRATION

it's not over until ...

The "Class of '87" will be Southeastern's twentieth graduating class. Past graduates have applied their vocational knowledge and acquired academic skills to become caring and responsible members of the community. I trust that we have prepared you well for your bright future, and wish you the greatest success.

Sincerely,

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

MR. AHOLA
MAY 1924-
DECEMBER 1986

So many things remind me of you
Things we used to talk about,
Things we used to do.
Everything is different now,
A part of me has changed.
I cannot understand it,
My life is rearranged.
I think of you in silence
And make no outward show.
But what it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.
You wished no one a farewell,
Nor, even said good-bye.
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
God broke my heart to prove to me,
He only takes the best!
If stairs were made from heartaches,
By adding teardrops too,
I would build a staircase to heaven,
And climb each day to you.

Is this information?

I told you not to do that.

You said "you need some guidance," I'll get you an appointment.

Sorry, I thought this was the payroll office.

Between softball, track, and basketball the girls keep this man smiling.

I'm new here but, I'm having fun.

Sorry, I don't have a check for you.

Mrs. Manning's Irish smile, even if it is lunch duty.

No pass, no entrance.

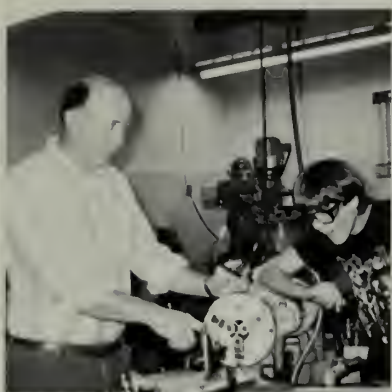

Where'd I put that book?

They don't pay me enough for this.

The lunch bunch.

Do that again, Mr. Nichols

Get your notebooks ready.

Mr. Berthiaume sticking it together

You better do what Mr. Nystrom tell's you, or else!

Mr. Vardaro saying "What else am I going to eat at 10.30.

Class Poem

Our dream will help us look to tomorrow
So we end these four years with joy, not sorrow
Reflect on the good times and forget all the rest
Now the lessons we learned will be put to the test

We now have a challenge to teach ourselves more
To reach for the stars that we didn't before
To look deep within us for that special drive
To reach and conquer all that we strive

We value the friendships that gave us such hope
Those who were there to help us to cope
Let time bring us closer, and not far apart
Keep all our friends close to the heart

So as we begin to engage on our quest
We'll learn from the worst and cherish the best
Because no one can tell what tomorrow will bring
We'll ride the carousel to find the golden ring

Danielle Hottenrott

IT'S NOT OVER UNTIL . . .

. . . YOU PUT
SOME COLOR
INTO IT

a good year

Batter up.

This job's easy.

Bill, this is fried.

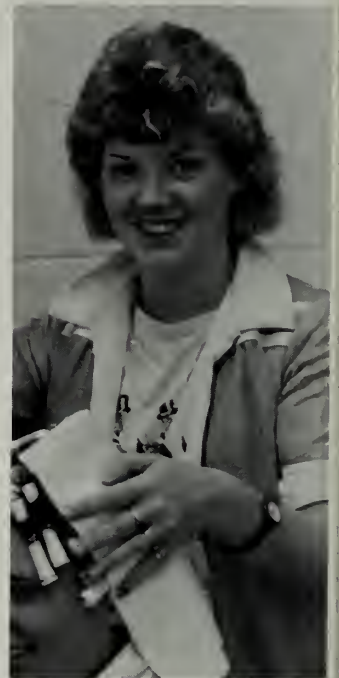

The jinx.

Oops!

Keep that away from me.

Do you dare to be next?

Careful!

Please don't let it fall.

Flunk him.

A bunch of cuties.

What's under the lid?

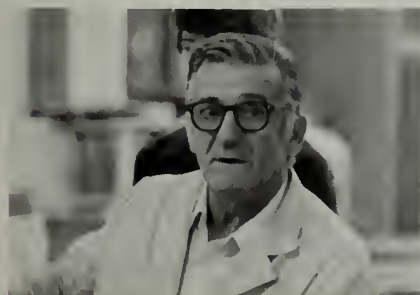

What do you want?

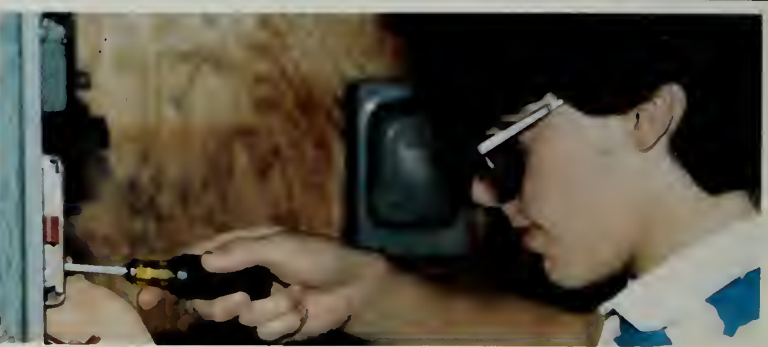

Where's the bricks?

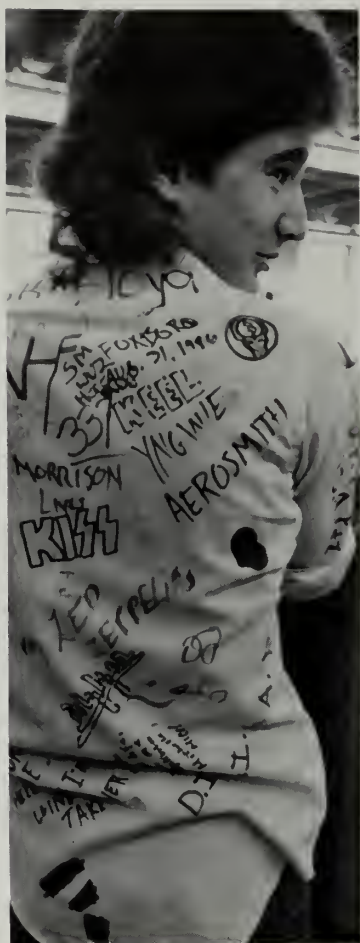

Don't spill it.

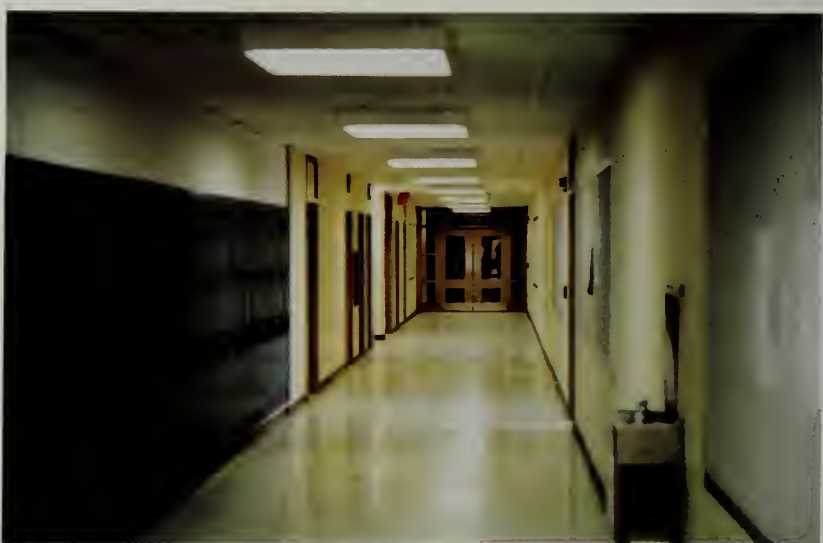

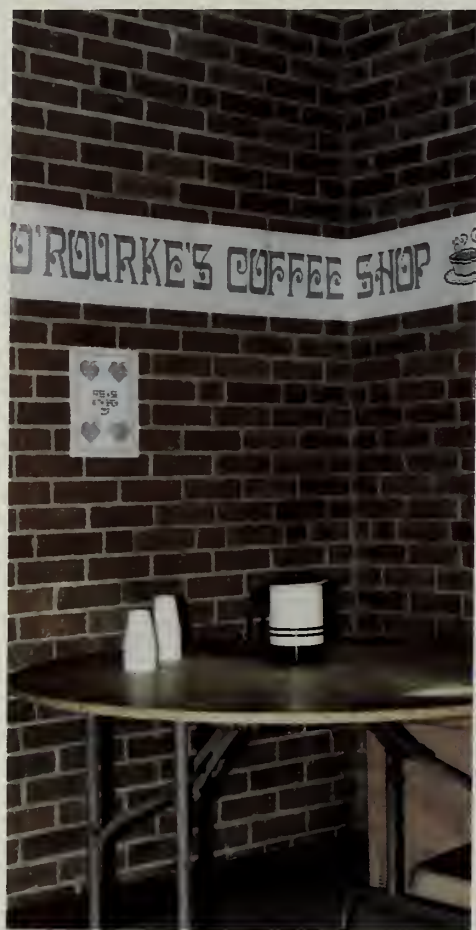

I'd rather be golfing!

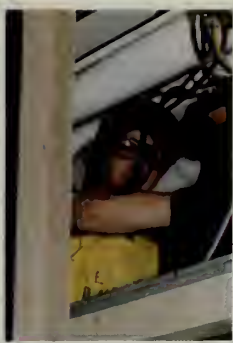

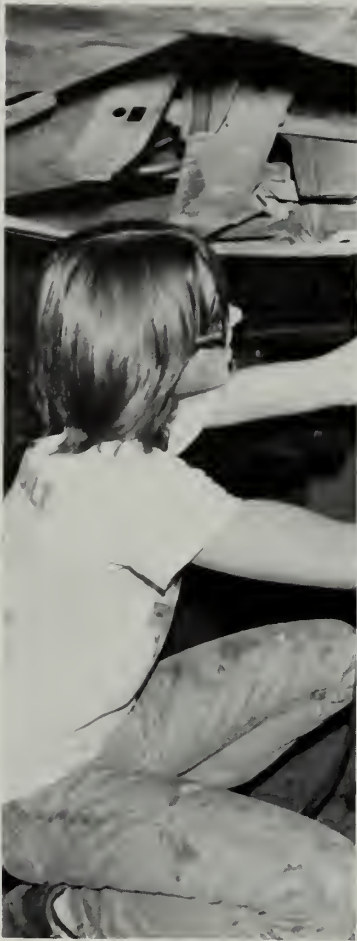

What are you looking at?

I wouldn't buy this!

I didn't do it. Did you?

Is this the right wire?

Good to the last drop!

It ain't easy!

Quiet, or I'll paint your face!

Let the machine do all the work.

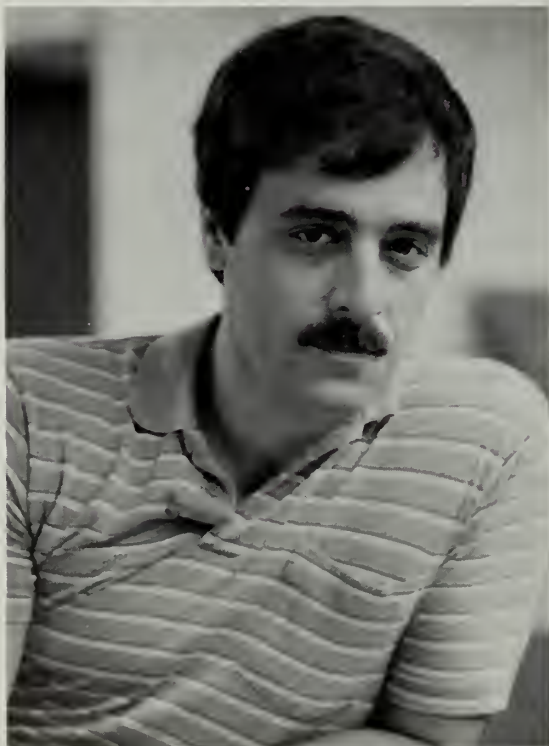

Go away, I'm talking.

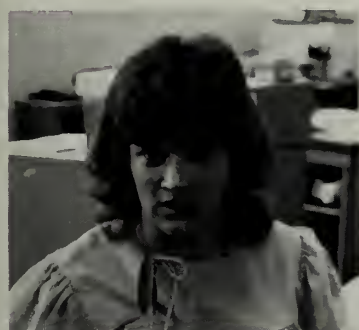

Chuba working?

IT'S NOT OVER UNTIL . . .

. . . IT'S OVER
